10 5. Beginning in or about 2006, Janet Reiswig, Ronald Reiswig, and US America, Inc.
11 regularly placed advertisements in newspapers throughout the state of California and on the US
12 America, Inc. website which offered FDIC insured certificates of deposit (“CDs”) with promised 13 yields substantially higher than those being offered by actual FDIC insured institutions. When 14 investors contacted the phone numbers listed in the advertisements for information about the CD
15 offer, they were told that they needed to come to the US America, Inc.’s company office for a 16 meeting in order to obtain details. Once in the US America, Inc. office they met with Janet Reiswig 17 and were told to make out a check to US America, Inc. for the amount of the FDIC insured CD they 18 wanted to purchase.

20 6. Investors were often asked to fill out applications entitled “Proof of US America Inc.
21 Membership and Global Reserve Application” and sign contracts with US America, Inc. and Global 22 Reserves, BT. The contracts were titled “Disclosure and Principal Agreement. General Conditions of 23 Global Reserves, BT”. The contracts referred to Global Reserves, BT as the “trustee” and the investor 24 as the “beneficiary” and specified the duties and obligations of US America, Inc., the trustee and the 25 “beneficiary”. The contracts make reference to “the offshore environment in which we work” but 26 contain no specifics as to what investments were to be made with the money. The contracts were 27
28

1 signed on behalf of US America, Inc. and Global Reserves, BT by Janet Reiswig. It indicated on the 2 signature line of the applications and contracts that Janet Reiswig was accepting the “power of 3 attorney”. Some investors also were issued a “Cash Certificate” by US America, Inc., which 4 indicated that the investor was a “certified owner on the books of the corporation of the guaranteed 5 cash distribution” of a specified amount that would be paid on a date one year from the issuance of 6 the certificate.
7

8           8. US America, Inc. and Global Reserves, BT are not FDIC-insured institutions and cannot 11 not returned by US America, Inc. or Global Reserves, BT.

14 and Global Reserves, BT in the form of “Cash Certificates” and “Disclosure and Principal 15 Agreements. General Conditions of Global Reserves, BT” constitute securities in the form of 16 investment contracts. The Department of Corporations has not issued a permit or other form of 17 qualification authorizing any person to offer and sell these securities in this state.

19           10. Ronald Reiswig, Janet Reiswig, US America, Inc. and Global Reserves, BT offered and 20 sold securities by means of written and oral communications which included untrue statements of 21 material fact and which omitted to state material facts necessary in order to make the statements
22 made, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. The material 23 misstatements and omissions include the misrepresentation that the investors’ money would be used 24 to purchase FDIC insured CDs and that the investors’ money would be returned to them. They 25 further failed to disclose that Janet Reiswig had filed Bankruptcy on or about September 6, 2000 on 26 behalf of herself and “dba” FEP, Inc. and that a Judgment was entered against Janet Reiswig on or 27 about May 27, 1999 in the amount of $127,749.28 in a probate action entitled In re the Matter of the 28 Judson and Esther Ferentz Trust, Orange County Superior Court case number 190779 in which the

6 FID Inc. and FEP Inc., ordering them to desist and refrain from the offer and sale of unqualified
7 securities in California including but not limited to investment contracts and notes entitled “Security 8 Contract”, “Promissory Note”, “Pledge of Shares Of Stock”, and “Loan and Security Agreement”.
9 The Order also prohibited them from offering and selling any securities by means of untrue 10 statements and omissions of material facts.

11 13. Ronald Reiswig and Janet Reiswig are the subjects of a criminal complaint filed by the 12 Orange County District Attorney, Case Number 07CF2337, which charges each of them with 33
13 felony counts, including grand theft, fraud and embezzlement, making untrue statements with regard 14 to the sale of securities and identity theft. The conduct alleged in the criminal complaint arises out 15 of the Reiswigs' conduct of their prior businesses, FID Inc. and FEP Inc. An arrest warrant was issued 16 and Ronald Reiswig and Janet Reiswig were taken into custody by law enforcement authorities on or 17 about July 13, 2007.

18 Based upon the foregoing findings, the California Corporations Commissioner is of the 19 opinion that Ronald Edward Reiswig, Janet Sue Reiswig, US America, Inc. and Global Reserves, BT
20 engaged in the offer and sale of securities in the form of investment contracts entitled “Cash 21 Certificate” and “Disclosure and Principal Agreement. General Conditions of Global Reserves, BT.” 22 Those securities have not been qualified under the California Corporate Securities Law of 1968, in 23 violation of section 25110 of the Corporations Code. Pursuant to section 25532 of the Corporate 24 Securities Law of 1968, Ronald Edward Reiswig, Janet Sue Reiswig, US America, Inc. and Global 25 Reserves, BT are hereby ordered to desist and refrain from the further offer or sale in the State of 26 California of securities, including but not limited to investment contracts unless and until 27 qualification has been made under the law or unless exempt.
