20 I.

21 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

22 The Commissioner of the Department of Business Oversight (“Commissioner”) is authorized
23 to administer and enforce the provisions of the Corporate Securities Law of 1968, Corporations 24 Code section 25000 et seq. (“CSL”) and the regulations thereunder at Title 10, California Code of 25 Regulations.

26 The Commissioner brings this action pursuant to the provisions of the CSL sections 25213 27 and 25232.1, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

28 The Commissioner regulates investment advisers, broker-dealers and commodity advisers in

1 California.

2 For the purpose of settling the issues contained in this Consent Order without further 3 litigation, David Scott Cacchione (“Cacchione”) admits to the jurisdiction of the Commissioner and 4 the subject matter of these proceedings and consents to the entry of this Consent Order made 5 pursuant to California Corporations Code sections 25213 and 25232.1.

6 II.

7 STATEMENT OF FACTS

8 1. In 1989, David Scott Cacchione (“Cacchione”) (CRD No. 1941729) became a 9 registered representative with the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (“FINRA”), formerly the 10 National Association of Securities Dealers (“NASD”). Cacchione has been employed with various 11 registered broker-dealers since 1989.

12 2. In January 2004, Cacchione, without admitting or denying, consented to a thirty (30)
13 day suspension and was fined $30,000.00 after the NASD found that he sold unregistered securities 14 to public customers without proper disclosure.

15 3. From December 2005 until June 2008, Cacchione was the Managing Director of 16 Merriman, Curhan, Ford & Co. (“Merriman”), an investment brokerage firm in San Francisco, 17 California.

18 4. In March 24, 2009, the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”)
19 filed a civil complaint against Cacchione in the United States District Court, Northern District of 20 California. The complaint alleges that beginning in 2007 through 2008, Cacchione provided account 21 statements of Merriman customers to a third party, so the third party could fraudulently pledge the 22 securities held in the customers’ accounts in order to obtain more than $45,000,000.00 in personal 23 loans. Cacchione also signed agreements with lenders falsely confirming that the third party owned 24 the assets in the innocent customer’s accounts. The SEC complaint alleged that beginning in 2006 25 through 2007, Cacchione engaged in unauthorized trading in several customer accounts in which he 26 purchased risky, thinly-traded stocks without his customers’ permission and netted more than 27 $32,000.00 in unlawful commissions generated from the unauthorized trades. The SEC complaint
28 alleged that Cacchione’s conduct constituted violations of the Securities Act of 1933 (“Securities

1 Act”), section 17(a), and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (“Exchange Act”), section 10(b) and
2 Rule 10B-5 promulgated thereunder. (15 U.S.C. § 77q(a), 15 U.S.C. § 78j(b) and 17 C.F.R. §
3 240.10b-5, respectively.)

4 5. On April 1, 2009, Cacchione consented to entry of a final judgment in the SEC’s civil 5 action. Pursuant to the final judgment, Cacchione was permanently enjoined from violating, the 6 Securities Act, section 17(a), and the Exchange Act, section 10(b) and Rule 10b-5 thereunder.

7 6. On March 24, 2009, the United States Attorney’s Office filed criminal charges 8 against Cacchione in the United States District Court, Northern District of California. The United 9 States Attorney’s Office alleged that Cacchione knowingly and intentionally aided and abetted a 10 scheme and artifice to defraud lenders and guarantees in connection with a security in violation of 11 Title 18, United States Code, sections 1348 and 2. (18 U.S.C. §§ 1348, 2.) The crux of the United 12 States Attorney’s Office case against Cacchione centered around the same conduct involved in the 13 SEC’s civil case, discussed above.

14 7. On March 31, 2009, Cacchione pled guilty to securities fraud and aiding and abetting
15 and on October 7, 2009, Cacchione was sentenced to 60 months in prison and ordered to pay
16 approximately $50,000,000.00 in restitution in the case brought by the United States Attorney’s 17 Office.

18 8. On March 24, 2014, Montara (CRD No. 171249) was formed as a limited liability
19 company under the laws of the State of Delaware.

20 9. On June 25, 2014, Montara requested registration with the SEC as an investment
21 adviser. The registration discloses that Montara’s principal office and place of business is at 325
22 Sharon Parke Drive, Suite 514, Menlo Park, California 94025. Further, in the registration, Cacchione
23 is disclosed as Montara’s managing member.

24 10. Based on the above, there are several, independent grounds to bar Cacchione:

25 a. Sections 25212 and 25232 subject a person to a bar from the investment
26 industry if the person has been convicted of a felony or held liable in a civil action by final judgment 27 based upon conduct showing moral turpitude and the Commissioner finds that the felony or civil 28 action involves the purchase or sale of any security or arose out of the conduct of the business of a

1 the Commissioner making findings and entering this Consent Order;

2 WHEREAS, Cacchione admits the jurisdiction of the Commissioner over him and over the 3 subject matter of this Consent Order;

4 WHEREAS, Cacchione stipulates and elects to permanently waive any right to a hearing, any 5 reconsideration, appeal, or other rights which may be afforded pursuant to the California
6 Corporations Code sections 25532 and 25609, the California Administrative Procedure Act (Gov.
7 Code, § 11370 et seq.), the Code of Civil Procedure, or any other provision of law with respect to the 8 Accusation. However, nothing in this paragraph shall limit Cacchione’s ability to petition the 9 Commissioner for reinstatement pursuant to Corporations Code section 25232.2, subdivision (b), and 10 Government Code section 11522.

11 WHEREAS, all terms used, but not defined herein, shall have the meaning assigned to them
12 by the CSL;

13 WHEREAS, the Commissioner and Cacchione represent and warrant that each party has 14 received independent advice from its attorney(s) and/or other representatives prior to entering into 15 this Consent Order, and in executing this Consent Order relied solely on the statements set forth 16 herein and the advice of their own counsel and/or representative;

17 WHEREAS, Cacchione represents that no promises of any kind or nature whatsoever were 18 made to induce Cacchione to enter into this Consent Order, and that this Consent Order is a 19 voluntary act on the part of Cacchione;

20 WHEREAS, Cacchione agrees and acknowledges that nothing in this Consent Order shall 21 preclude the Commissioner or her agents, officers, or employees, to the extent authorized by law, 22 from referring any evidence or information regarding this matter to any other state or federal law 23 enforcement official, or from assisting, cooperating, or co-prosecuting with regard to any 24 investigation and/or action;

25 WHEREAS, Cacchione stipulates and agrees to the finality of this Consent Order. Cacchione 26 further understands and agrees that the Consent Order remains in effect and is public, and that 27 Cacchione shall not make any statement or representation that is inconsistent with this Consent
28 Order. Cacchione further understands that the Commissioner reserves the right to bring any future

1 action(s) against Cacchione for any and all unknown or future violations of the Corporate Securities
2 Act of 1968. This Consent Order shall not serve to exculpate Cacchione from liability for any and all
3 unknown or future violations of the Corporate Securities Act of 1968;

4 WHEREAS, this Consent Order may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which 5 shall be an original but all of which, together, shall be deemed to constitute a single document. A fax 6 signature shall be deemed the same as an original signature; and

7 Based upon the foregoing, the Commissioner finds it is in the public interest to bar David
8 Scott Cacchione from any position of employment, management or control of any investment 9 adviser, broker-dealer or commodity adviser.

10 GOOD CAUSE APPEARING THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED that David Scott Cacchione
11 is barred in the State of California from any position of employment, management or control of any 12 investment adviser, broker-dealer or commodity adviser pursuant to California Corporations Code 13 sections 23213 and 23232.1. This Consent Order shall become effective when executed by the 14 Commissioner or her designee.
