15 v.)
16 ASHTON CAPITAL MANAGEMENT, INC.,)
17 Respondent.)
18 _____)

19 Preston DuFauchard, California Corporations Commissioner (“Commissioner”) of the 20 Department of Corporations (“Department”) finds:

- 21 1. Ashton Capital Management, Inc. (“Ashton Capital”), a California corporation, is a 22 broker-dealer (No. 26502) with a registered business address of 7966 Arjons Drive, Suite 102, San 23 Diego, California 92126. Kathleen Shave is the owner, president and registered agent for Ashton 24 Capital.
25 2. Beginning in or about July 2008, the Department has been unable to locate Ashton
26 Capital, Ms. Shave and/or any other control person for Ashton Capital. Attempts to contact Ashton 27 Capital at its registered address have been unsuccessful. Attempts to contact Ashton Capital by 28

1 contacting Ms. Shave at her home address have been unsuccessful. Telephone calls to Ashton
2 Capital and Ms. Shave have gone unreturned.

3 3. Ashton Capital’s broker-dealer representatives have likewise been unable to locate
4 Ashton Capital or Ms. Shave. As a result, these representatives are unable to transact business for 5 clients of Ashton Capital.

6 4. California Corporations Code section 25242(b) provides:

7 If the commissioner finds that any broker-dealer or investment
8 adviser is no longer in existence, or has ceased to do business as a 9 broker-dealer or investment adviser, . . . or cannot be located after 10 reasonable search, the commissioner may by order summarily revoke
the certificate of that broker-dealer or investment adviser.

11 5. In light of the foregoing, the Commissioner finds that Ashton Capital has ceased to do
12 business as a broker-dealer and cannot be located after reasonable search.

13 NOW, THEREFORE, GOOD CAUSE APPEARING, it is hereby ORDERED pursuant to 14 California Corporations Code section 25242(b) that the broker-dealer certificate of Ashton Capital
15 Management, Inc. is hereby revoked. This revocation precludes Ashton Capital from engaging in 16 normal broker-dealer activities that solicit or facilitate new business, including for existing clients.
17 However, Ashton Capital may engage in only those activities necessary to the winding down of the 18 business prior to filing its BD-W such as liquidating transactions, transferring accounts, forwarding
19 any checks received to the clearing firm, National Financial Services, responding to regulatory 20 inquiries, filing U-5s for registered representatives, and otherwise fielding client/customer phone
21 calls for account servicing or document requests, among other things.
